Member Spotlight

My passion for two wheels started at eight years old, buzzing around the yard on a neighbor's Taco minibike. Not long after, seeing Easy Rider in the theater and watching those choppers cross the country cemented my love for the open road. That early spark led to a 45-year run riding dirt bikes starting in high school in 1972. I bought my first Harley Davidson in 1976—a kickstart 1966 Sportster 900. Being 19 and owning a 900!!! Fun times. After a stint on a 2015 Triumph Thunderbird, a trip with Angie to Caliente Harley-Davidson for free hot dogs famously turned into buying a Road Glide so I could match her Harley Street 750 in the garage. Today, I'm riding an incredible Vivid Black 2026 Low Rider ST. (Sport Tourer)

These days, I love cruising around town, taking a few shorter weekend trips, and hitting the road for one major annual tour. This past summer, I rode up to Yosemite, cut over to the coast down to LA, and made the trek back home. I'm already mapping out the next big run for 2027. The riding community is where I've found all my closest friends, and I look forward to putting down miles with the chapter! Dave L.

Odds and Ends

On a beautiful Sunday morning, 12 riders and passengers set out in search of food and drink.

Our fearful lead Ron guided us through the backwoods of Medina County where we were able to observe hay bales, cotton bales, and cows in their natural habitat. I tried to befriend some hay bales, but alas, they stood silent in their fields like the guards in Buckingham palace.

After several hundred miles (50) we arrived at black creek bar and grille and proceeded to feast on roast beast with steins of grog. A good time was had by all with fellowship and singing of Viking songs. after we all went our own ways in search of villages to raid and adventures for stories to tell later. Respectfully submitted, Ken the Impaler
